

CLEAR ENTERTAINMENT

A CLEAR WRAP FOR “SAVING GOD”

Ving Rhames and Dean McDermott topline Duane Crichton’s directorial debut

Toronto (March 3, 2008) – Clear Entertainment and Cloud Ten Pictures have wrapped the inspiring drama “Saving God.” The film is produced by Clear Entertainment’s Domenic Serafino, Wayne Thompson, Philip Mellows and Cloud Ten Pictures' André van Heerden. Ving Rhames serves as executive producer. Cloud Ten Pictures will also act as North American Distributor for both a national Church Cinema release later this year and for Home Entertainment. Celebrated music video and commercial director Duane Crichton marks his feature directorial debut with a script by Michael Jackson.

Ving Rhames (“Mission Impossible 1-3”) and Dean McDermott (“So NoTORIous”) star in “Saving God”, a heart-felt tale of the eternal struggle between good and evil. Ricardo Chavira (“Desperate Housewives”), Dwain Murphy (“How She Move”) and Genelle Willams (“Radio Free Roscoe”) co-star along with 2008 Double Juno Award Nominee and R&B sensation Jully Black. Black’s soulful musical voice will also be featured in “Saving God”.

Armstrong Cane (Rhames) served 15 years in prison for manslaughter. Now he serves God as the Pastor of his community church. As he works to rebuild the community he left behind, the ex con meets Norris (Murphy) and recognizes a young man headed down the wrong path. Lured into the depths of drugs and violence by local dealer Blaze (McDermott), the troubled teen is pulled in opposite directions.

While battling to keep on the right path, Cane fights to save Norris from a life of drugs and violence, but the ultimate question remains: Can people really change, or will the demons of their past overcome them?

Clear Entertainment Chairman and CEO Domenic Serafino says, “We are very pleased with the cast we have assembled for this production and especially excited to have Ving Rhames, Dean McDermott and Ricardo Chavira, as all have delivered extraordinary performances.” Cloud Ten Pictures' CEO, André van Heerden adds, “We're thrilled to be working with Clear Entertainment on 'Saving God'. The cast, the story and the redemptive theme are precisely what we've been striving to produce and find. It's going to reach a lot of people.”

About ClearEntertainment:

Clear Entertainment Inc. was founded in August 2007 and primarily focuses on TV/Film projects under $5 million that will maximize the potential returns for both the company and individual investors while mitigating risk. Clear will only participate in projects that make economical and creative sense to its seasoned team of production and business experts. The skilled team of professionals at Clear Entertainment will only participate in projects where Clear has direct input and control of all aspects of producing, marketing, distribution and collection of revenue.

In a very short period of time, Clear Entertainment has been able to align itself with many of Hollywood's biggest names in TV & film talent and production. Clear is committed to taking a fresh approach in the exciting industry of entertainment.

About Cloud Ten Pictures:

Cloud Ten Pictures was founded in 1996 by brothers Peter and Paul Lalonde. The company is the market-leader in the production and marketing of faith-based films. It's 2000 release of LEFT BEHIND: THE MOVIE, was the top-selling independent video of that year. Cloud Ten has produced and distributed 10 successful feature films and has strong distribution arms through KOCH Entertainment and CNI as well as through Cloud Ten Church Cinemas. The Financial Post labeled it "one of the most successful independent studios in the English-speaking world." Long time Cloud Ten producer André van Heerden serves as CEO.

For further information please contact:

Cloud Ten Pictures

André van Heerden

11 Export Ave.

St. Catharines, ON

L2M 5V8

T: 905-684-5561 / F: 905-684-7946

andrev@cloudtenpictures.com

www.cloudtenpictures.com

Clear Entertainment

Domenic Serafino

515 Consumers Road

Suite 210

Toronto, Ontario

M2J 4Z2

T: 416 907-0101 / F: 416 494-1238

dom@clearentertainment.com

www.clearentertainment.com